Tattersall's Club Magazine

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF TATTERSALL'S CLUB SYDNEY

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Pleasing to report the Club enjoyed wonderful pre-Christmas trading, withstanding the December power restrictions. I wish to thank all of the Members for their support of the many Club functions during that period and for their understanding of the difficulties under which the Club and our staff operated to try to maintain top service under most trying conditions.

The Christmas Dinner, New Year's Eve Party, Christmas Cocktail Party and Chocolate Wheel were particularly well supported. In fact we have decided in view of the unprecedented high attendance at the Christmas Cocktail Party that a new format will apply this year, and we propose to hold it over two evenings, the Tuesday and Wednesday before Christmas to ensure more comfort for the very large number of Members and guests who attend.

Members have pointed out that ladies were only able to enjoy one evening of the Chocolate Wheel function. It is our present proposal to allow ladies to participate in this enjoyable event on the three evenings — Tuesday 21, Wednesday 22 and Thursday 23, December, 1982.

Once again on my behalf and the Committee our sincere thanks for the wonderful support of Members during December, and we trust that in 1982 we will be able to arrange many more functions where Members will have the opportunity to enjoy the facilities of the Club, more frequently.

The first of the Club concerts is on Thursday, April 1. We have arranged for Mr Des O'Connor and his group to appear following the dinner in the Club Room. Of these popular and well-conducted shows Des O'Connor is undoubtedly one of the best. Tickets are available and bookings can be made at the office.

It will be followed by one of our finest social and major functions, the annual Sydney Cup Dinner, to be held in the Club Room on Thursday, April 15, 1982. Our guest of honour will be Sir Roden Cutler, VC, AK, KCMG, KCVO, CBE, who will be accompanied by Lady Cutler. Our guest speaker will be The Honourable Jim Killen, MP, Minister for Defence, an excellent speaker and the owner of outstanding race horses. Jim Killen's acceptance of our invitation will not be confirmed until after Parliament resumes in February.

The phantom call this year will be by well-known race caller and turf commentator Ian Craig from Sydney radio station 2KY.

Champion jockey Wayne Harris will be interviewed too.

On behalf of all of our Members and their guests who attended our January Race Meeting at Randwick I take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to Major-General J. W. Norrie, AO, OBE, Secretary/General-Manager of the Australian Jockey Club and Ray Alexander, Racing Manager.

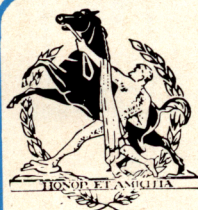

Brian Robertson and Bill Charles of AJC Administration gave wonderful assistance to our Secretary and Race Sub-Committee. It resulted in one of our most successful Race Meetings in many years.

By virtue of the uncertainty of mail we have had complaints from Members that they did not know of functions because their magazine did not arrive in time. It pays to check from time to time the notice boards in the Club.

Kind regards,
KEITH H. MOREMON

GUARANTEED LIVE FOAL!

STERLING OFFER AT TATTERSALL'S SYDNEY CUP DINNER APRIL 15

The Chelmsford Stakes, run at Tattersall's Club Spring Meeting, is one of the most historic weight-for-age races in Australia.

The clash of Gloaming and Beauford brought the biggest crowd ever at Randwick to see the Chelmsford Stakes and it has been a race for champions ever since until Kingston Town in the present day. Recent winners of the race apart from Kingston Town were Mighty Kingdom and Ming Dynasty.

Your Committee continues to endeavour to maintain the prestige of this Group race and intends to augment the stake for the 1982 meeting. To assist achieving this Tattersalls will create another "world first" by making an opportunity available for Members and friends to gain a guaranteed living foal by boom sire One Pound Sterling, who was chosen as the mate for My Blue Denim, record stake-winning female for Australia, when she retired. She is now in foal to him.

The Tattersall's Club nomination will be made available by sale to the highest bidder at the black tie Sydney Cup Dinner, the night of Thursday, April 15 and the entire proceeds will go towards Tattersall's Race Fund and what a package to be sold.

The owner of the nomination can send either their own mare (of a standard acceptable to the Syndicate) or alternatively Evergreen Stud, of Walton, New Zealand in the richest part of the historic Waikato Valley. It will provide absolutely free of charge the choice of three mares to be kept free of all cost until after the foal is weaned — everything including veterinary fees paid for by the stud. The owner of the nomination can choose one of these mares and have its use and her eventual weaning. The other two mares will be maintained by the stud to ensure a live foal for the Tattersall's nomination should the owner's choice not have one.

You are guaranteed a live foal from your own mare or any one of three stud back-up mares, selected in your order of preference. The only expense other than the cost of the original nomination — paid to Tattersalls — is insurance on the eventual foal, and transport if you send your own mare.

One Pound Sterling is the world's largest stake-winner by Sovereign Path (famous here as sire of Sovereign Edition). He won 21 races and headed the sprint Free Handicap when racing in Canada and the USA. He ran 1200 metres in one minute eight seconds. His first crop will race this year and already he is the sire of McGinty, unbeaten champion two year-old of New Zealand. McGinty and Sterling Revel (NZ), Adelaide Pound, Money Clip (NSW), Silver Spring (Queensland), Elgar, Currency and Ascot (Victoria) have taken him to the top of the Two year-old Sires' List for New Zealand and the Australasian list for a New Zealand-based sire.

At the recent Trentham, New Zealand Yearling Sales his progeny sold for a three times better average than the next highest second-year sire and went to $45,000. Nominations are virtually unobtainable to him. His book is strictly limited. His 1981 coverings and 1982 applicants included the great race mares.

My Blue Denim, Australasian record stake-earner for a female; Judena, Champion for her year; Braless, NZ 1000 Guineas Gr 1; Mayo Gold, Champion at two and three; Taraleah, Avondale Cup Gr 1; Deesse, SA Oaks; Gold Dust, Crack NZ miler; Suttle, top-staying mare of her time; Moonlight 'n Roses, (Ireland) Ulster Cesarewitch by 20 lengths; Astound, Wellington Guineas; and the dams of Gold Hope, 1981 Bergin Award Champion NZ Sprinter (only filly ever to win) Railway Handicap Gr 1 1400 metres at weight-for-age in one minute 20.8 seconds — a record; Porsha, NZ 1000 Guineas Gr 1.

Uncle Remus — Champion of his year, now a sire; March Legend, Champion two year-old of his year, now a sire; Piemelon Bay, STC Queen of the Turf S. Gr 11; Heidelberg, Top two year-old on Free Handicap, and Stake Winners Aquatorial, Silver Rhythm Jocasta, Gold Spot and sisters to the dams of Ubetido and Ardross, 1981 Ascot Gold Cup Gr 1; and sisters to some of the best horses in Australia. The only stallions who have runners to gain a higher average than One Pound Sterling at the recent sales in New Zealand were Sovereign Edition, Noble Bijou, Sir Tristram and Zephyr Bay.

As the best bred progeny of One Pound Sterling will come on the market from the 1981 and 1982 matings without inflation, a likely average of at least double his current $30,000 is likely.

All grazing and veterinary costs on the mare and foal while at Evergreen Lodge are to be paid for by the stud and the service nominations involved have been donated to the Club by the stud. By attending the Sydney Cup dinner — or by contacting your Committeemen — you can take the first steps to acquire the Tattersall's nomination. The stud is providing free the following mares to choose from, or to back up your own mare and should for any reason any be unavailable a suitable replacement will be provided.

Choose three from:

Moon Glory (by Ring Round Moon), unraced half-sister to Crimson Glory, eight wins, five in record time in Sydney.

APRIL FOOLS DAY TREAT

Looking forward to renewing acquaintance with star Des O'Connor, when he steps up to entertain at Tattersall's, on the 1st April at the Black Tie Dinner Show in the Club. A great personality — "likes a flutter on the gees gees", and is one of the most likeable people you'll ever meet so be there to meet him, too, on April Fool's Day.

FONDA PEOPLE!

Read an interview as reported by "Variety" Magazine — Henry Fonda is Mr Candor himself. It's admiring of Kate Hepburn, only a recent professional relationship and of Barbara Stanwyck an old platonic love. Three of his wives prove to have been cases of wanting-out. Margaret Sullivan only after a few months. Frances Brokaw, mother of Jane and Peter was a good wife but committed suicide. Third and fourth brides skipped. Present wife has endured 19 years because she's a perfect companion and he, says he, is mellow.

I had the pleasure of introducing Henry Fonda to some 500 guests at a luncheon some years ago when he was in Australia for the film "How the West was Won". I'll go on record about his latest film "On Golden Pond", with Katherine Hepburn, (soon for Sydney), it will feature in the Academy Awards this year.

ICEBERG RECEPTION!

Yelling "Corn" daughter Anna tore up my cartoon showing the two Irish-men adrift on the iceberg. One saying "O'Toole we're saved here comes the TITANIC!".

WINING & DINING & CLUB NEWS

Member Terry Gavan arranged a large "bon voyage" dinner party at Tattersall's for Des and Pam Smith (they leave shortly for a two-year stint in Thailand), where Des will help "put together" a major programme for the Agriculture Department. A very convivial night was enjoyed by all under the friendly and capable supervision of our head-waiter Andy.

Fellow golfer Jack Murchie presented Des with a painting, the artist's impression of Concord's "Smithy's Reservoir" (the catchment area for Des's "sliced" golf balls). A great night.

Ern Smith knows his horses and showed more good judgment in recently becoming a Member of Tattersall's Club. One of his first evenings in the Dining Room with the family was most enjoyable. Attractive wife Candy and charming teenage daughters Elizabeth and Melissa enjoyed their very first visit to Tattersall's.

Smiling Peter Richardson staged a party for Kathy Moore's 12th birthday. They celebrated in the Dining Room. Mrs Richardson's youngest daughter was also present. Kathy's sister Sally and family friend Fiona Clark made up the pleasant party and helped make it a memorable night.

Club Member Bill Sinclair — a busy legal man. Takes time off to enjoy the Sport of Kings. His natural friendship and charm is the envy of many mates.

Paddy Graham Smith found a good Tattersall's reason to celebrate the second Annual Silverman Dinner. The first dinner was held in December 1965 when Professor Frederic N. Silverman was visiting the Children's Hospital, Camperdown. Professor Silverman is an eminent pediatric radiologist.

He first visited Australia as a guest of the US Army in 1942, when he gained a great affection for all things Australian (his dog's name was Cobber).

Fred and Carolyn Silverman were guests of the Graham Smith family.

Member Clyde Renshaw caught by our photographer saying a few words. A great personality. Man of the land. He has a wealth of friends — wherever he goes he spreads happiness.

Albert and Thalma Dickson were delighted to celebrate the birthdays of their son William and daughter Tracey. Guests included their other daughter Toni, friends Bruce Robbins and Vanessa Brechley joined the fun of the evening in the spacious Dining Room.

In the Fourth Floor Dining Room Ron Robson and John Bowes (with their ladies Joan and Elva), had the pleasure of being joined by their friends after a disastrous betting day at Randwick. The Alladin Committee held their race day function with over 150 guests attending and supporting charity. Afterwards they enjoyed dinner at Tattersall's.

"Plenty of frivolity — good food — good wine and thanks to staff for their attentive service", said John.

The Courtneys — with Denny, a charming hostess, staged an impromptu after-races dinner to relax and celebrate a successful day at Royal Randwick, with Melbourne visitors Felicity and Bill Braun, and horse-owners and breeders from O'Connell (Bathurst District), NSW, Jan and Michael Hardie, together with Denise and Frank Kenny and children.

Member, Tony Hawkins, who joined with the Hardie's and their team from Bathurst in past race conviviality.

Long Swim Champ Member Des Renford bubbles with vitality. So pleasant to see a great athlete who looks very fit and makes the ordinary man rush for the gym.

The redoubtable Tom Powell chalked up 87 years the other day. One of his mates arranged a complimentary lunch . . . There's no prize for guessing the man — the kind Tony McSweeney (you never miss, do you Tony? Ed.).

After a long stint with Astronaut Travel, Bob Lavigne has left and formed his own travel company, Top Flight International Travel. He will be able to assist Club Members on a more personal basis with all their travel requirements — be it domestic or international.

His phone number is (07) 27 2121, at 15 Young Street, Sydney.

Mr and Mrs Colin Dodds joined Michael and Jan Dodds with Timothy Dodds and Julie Dundas, to celebrate the engagement of Timothy and Julie. They all agreed — no better place to celebrate than Tattersall's!

Club Member Gregory Francis Coote of Seaforth, NSW, was awarded a General Division AM in the honours recently announced. Greg's dedication to the film industry and community service earned this award.

(I was there when Greg, as a mere youth, first joined the film industry. He is a fine man and deserving of the honour. Ed.).

It was a joyous evening meal at Tattersall's when Sydney Lord Mayor Doug Sutherland and Patricia Feodosiu (Lady Mayoress) said bon voyage to visitors Jerry and Jean Bienhoff enroute to California, USA. Visitor Joanne Hunt of Toronto, Canada was in the party, too.

CABLE TELEVISION ENQUIRY:

Tattersall's Club Members Well Represented in Tribunal

The Australian Broadcasting Tribunal's Cable Television Enquiry Members and Associates held a dinner party at Tattersall's in December to celebrate the conclusion of the public enquiry portion of the investigation into the introduction of cable and radiated subscription television to Australia for the Australian Government.

The enquiry commenced when the Minister issued the terms of reference in July 1980, and the dinner party marked the end of nine weeks of public enquiry in Sydney, Adelaide and Melbourne. The Tribunal is expected to have its report handed to the Minister for Communications, The Honourable Ian Sinclair, MP, in June this year.

The purpose of the report is to set out the findings of the Tribunal's enquiry into the "if, when and how" of the introduction of either or both of these services into Australia.

Cable television, although not a new technology, is currently enjoying dynamic growth in the USA and Canada and is just commencing operation, mostly in experimental forms, in many other countries in the world. Present at the dinner were also Mr Brian Connolly, Secretary of the Tribunal. Mr Gerry Dwyer, Director of the Public Enquiry Branch, and other members who assisted the Tribunal during this particular enquiry. Mr Moremon, Chairman of Tattersall's Club, Mr David Jones is a Member and frequent user of the third floor plus Mr Ken Archer, who recently joined the Tribunal, is also a member. Mr Jim Wilkinson (based in Melbourne), has been staying in the Club for a considerable period during the past 12 months.

TATTERSALL'S SKI CLUB ENJOYED GREAT SNOW

Skiers will be talking about the 1981 conditions for many years to come. The snow was the kind of stuff that skiers dream of; it fell in early June and through to the long weekend in October dry, powdery snow was still falling, with the result that all resorts in New South Wales and Victoria extended the season into October.

The good conditions were not wasted on Tattersall's skiers as both outings saw maximum capacity at Roslyn and Wirruna. The Roslyn week was reported in an earlier edition and the events of Wirruna were such that a comment or two can still be recalled for the record.

The 1981 contingent was a happy mix of regulars, those joining Tattersall's for the first time, and some re-joining after an absence of a year or two.

The early starters who set off from Bruce Cormac's office to travel down in convoy included: Basil Phillips, Graham Smith and Norbet Cornell, all of whom arrived at Wirruna without incurring traffic fines and in time to thank Terry Forrest for having the provisions stored away. Others arrived over the weekend and by Sunday evening practically all beds in Wirruna were taken. The father and son groupings were again popular with Terry and Mark Forrest, Peter and John Perry, Bruce and Anthony Cormac, and Peter and Stephen Evans.

Anthony Berkman's arrival was a little delayed by the late arrival of a new son. As Anthony's arrival at Wirruna coincided with the first eating out night at the White Spider restaurant, the newly-born Berkman was celebrated in true skier fashion.

To ensure that the skiing activities were recorded, arrangements were made to have a video film taken of Tattersall's skiers in action. The day was ideal for photography as skiers performed some of their best style for the camera; even the shy members like Arnie Valkana and Terry Forrest were persuaded to perform for the camera, with Arnie and Stephen Evans showing good form in the "bumps"; George Andrews and Anthony Berkman showed how it should be done and Dick Small, Graham Smith, John Reid and Peter Evans all recorded good falls in front of the lens.

The finished product which will also have included the Thredbo week, will be screened for skiers during 1982.

We again express our appreciation to the committee of Wirruna for allowing us the use of their fine lodge.

The coming season will again offer the opportunity for Tattersall's skiers to get together and enjoy a week in the snow. Details of our activities during 1982 will be mailed to ski club members during February.

KINDRED CLUB AT TATTERSALL'S

Kindred Club Luncheon staged at Tattersall's Club was an excellent gathering of all major clubs. Exchange of ideas and informal discussions for improvements in Club administration and exchange of ideas was a feature. Tattersall's Club is an ideal venue for this very important function. Chairman Keith Moremon said "It is delightful to see such an excellent attendance of Club executive, this annual event provides a wonderful opportunity and exchange which must be of advantage to Clubs represented".

- TOP: Tattersall's Treasurer David Dransfield, John Dowd, MP, Leader of the Opposition and Chairman Keith Moremon.

$8,257.74 TO MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS SOCIETY

A great achievement by the members of Tattersall's Club.

All Club sections combined in a magnificent way to provide a fine return for this worthy society. The effort was in 1981, the Year of the Disabled. Members are to be complimented for the manner of their support. It was obtained by the Tattersall's Club spirit to help deserving people. The Chairman Keith Moremon spoke with pride when he presented the cheque at a Club luncheon in the festive period. "I'm so proud of this fine Club effort!" said Keith.

Members: Peter Holohan, Homer Jones, Neville O'Neill and popular bookmaker Roger Manning.

Chairman Keith Moremon presents the cheque to Allan G. R. Fudge, Appeals Director of the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

CHAIRMAN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

This happy evening created a Tattersall's Club record attendance. There was a great blending of youth and older members. This annual event is proving one of the most popular social evenings.

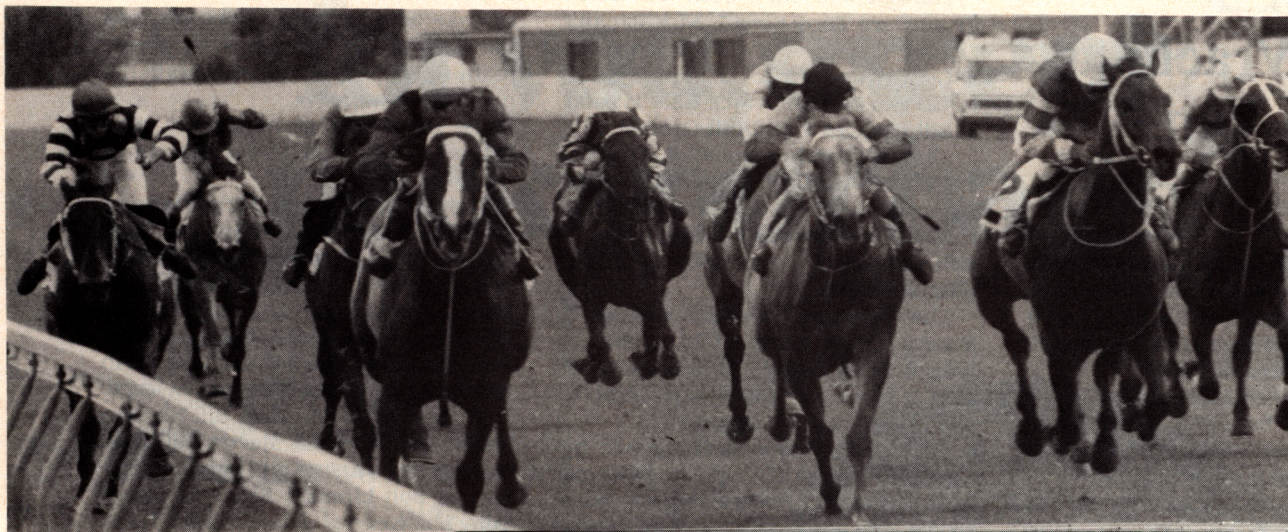

The happy party of Michelle Bol, Trevor Campbell, Mary-Anne Barnes, Tom Gee, Kathy Gee with Ron and Jenny Finlay.

UBETIDO STORMS HOME!

The $1.2 million sprinter (white blaze) is pictured making a sparkling comeback to win the Carrington Stakes at Randwick on Tattersall's Club New Year's Race Day.

It was a great Club day with Members enjoying AJC membership facilities at Royal Randwick. The meeting was a result of your racing committee's fine effort. Planned co-ordination by Club Secretary Norman Smith is to be commended. The Men's Luncheon with Bill Kendall, as Chief Guest, was a happy affair. Committee ladies and their guests enjoyed a luncheon in the Queen's Room too.

Pool Splashes . . .

Smiler Paul Vrachnas in the Van

. . . SAM BLOCK

Paul Vrachnas took the honours in the November-December, 1981 swimming point score with a total of 36 points from Ted Joye 31, with Charles Coppa 28 in third place.

Big-hearted Ted Joye was a wee bit unlucky, else he would have been much closer and Charlie Coppa's efforts after the expert coaching of Czar Nicholas cost him a cut of two seconds off his handicap.

Quite a few Members have shown a decided improvement with subsequent reductions of a second or more.

"Tony" McSweeney's Silver Sharpe Trophy has Bill Debney to the fore with a tally of 83½. From Gerald McCormack 79½, Ted Joye 78 and John Reid 74½, only nine points separating the early leaders, but the eventual winners will plough through rough waters for the ensuing six months.

The leaders for "Tom Powell's" Trophy are Tony King 5, Nick Papalia 5, Mike McCormack 4, Paul Vrachnas 3, Gerald McCormack 3, John Reid 3, H. Hooper 3, Jack Levy 3, Gary Wilson 3, Bill Hannan 3 and Bill Orme 3.

Alex Hillston has donated a trophy for an 80 yards event which commenced on Thursday, February 11, concluding Thursday, May 29. Points will not count in monthly or Silver Sharpe Trophy.

The "Scramble" was a big event. It attracted four teams of 18 apiece as well as a multitude of onlookers. It was a great day for the swimmers, especially for newcomers.

The result was a thrilling win by Mike McCormack's 'Whippets', followed home by Norm Rogers' 'Hares', with Harry Turner's 'Bears' in third place. In accordance with time-honoured practice the members of Bryan Mortenson's 'Rabbits' had to saddle up for the traditional consolation handicap of six times across the pool.

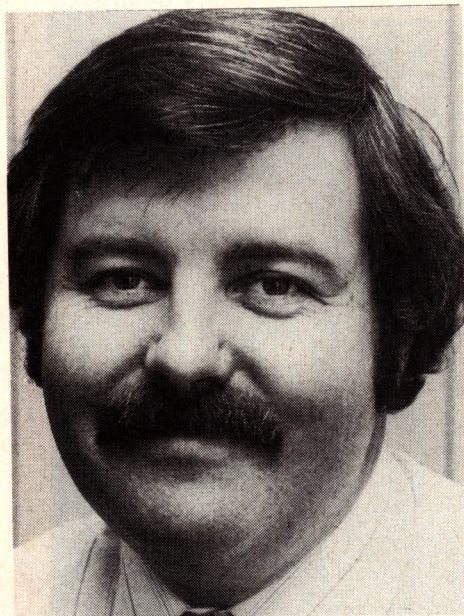

Twenty-two started in this contest (four extra, Sir Talbot Duckmanton, Len Blanket, Charlie Griffiths and John McClean). It was a nail-biting finish with dental superman Bryan Duncan taking the honours from John Bailey with Paul Blake third.

One would imagine fortunes were at stake with barracking that spurred the competitors to fever pitch. It was really tough for the long markers in the turbulent waters.

We thank the many donors who helped make this event the huge success.

SNOOKER AND BILLIARDS

... SYD LANE

The time again approaches to stage our annual Snooker and Billiards Tournaments, and we look forward to a record number of participants. New members are particularly invited to try their skill (or their luck), and for anyone who has not played in these tournaments before we suggest that they make themselves known to one of the sub-committee, whose names are shown inside the front cover of this magazine. The handicappers will then try to assess their ability, so that they may be given a reasonable handicap, rather than being penalised through our ignorance because it is the earnest decision of the sub-committee to give every player an even-money chance. Please complete the entry form printed on this page and lodge it at the front office prior to Thursday, April 29, 1982.

Also make a note in your diary that the Ballot Auction will take place on Monday, May 24, 1982, at 4.00 pm on the Second Floor. Refreshments will be served during the auction and your presence will help towards its success.

PRIZES: All those who purchase players who reach the last 16 will win a minimum of $100, and you will appreciate that this is a slight variation on last year.

GEORGE MOUSALLY CUP

The winner of each tournament will have one leg in for this beautiful trophy; but if one member wins both tournaments the trophy becomes his permanent possession.

TATTERSALL'S TIPPED TO TAKE TWO STATE TITLES

Dejavu! There it was all over again! How often has Norman Rogers made presentations to his illustrious handballing sons Ron and Neil?

Ron and Neil won the title three times, but with Ron sidelined Neil ships but is proving that he will be a force to be reckoned with in 1982 by teamed with Alex Hillston, at present poised to win his first Tattersall's Singles Trophy, and they easily won the 1981 NSW State Doubles Championship, Michael O'Dea's annually-donated trophy.

Following the withdrawal of Ray Hopkins through injury Noel Vella and Reg Chappel were installed short-priced favourites but they fell to the power of Neil Rogers and the guile of Alex Hillston. Previous State Finalists Frank Caldwell and Don Hudson were defeated with consummate ease by the Tattersall's pair in a semi-final and the stage was set for what should have been a closely-fought final.

A new pairing from Bondi, Chris Bourke and Bill Bennett had skated into the final assisted by two defaults but although playing on their home court offered little serious opposition to Neil and Alex who won in two straight sets 21-16, 21-11.

State Singles

Noel Vella, Tattersall's Plate Holder and 1980 State Singles Champion was quickly bundled out of the 1981 title race by eventual winner John Forde.

Neil Rogers, on one of his rare bad days, but a good win went to Jim Robinson, a Bondi specialist, 31-21.

Reg Chappel (Bondi) defeated our Bill Sellen and Alex Hillston (after a meritorious win against Don Hudson (Tamarama)), was beaten by eventual champion John Forde who beat Frank Caldwell in the final 21-13, 21-14.

Neil Rogers Wins

Second Singles Championship

The 1981 Tattersall's Handball Club A Grade Championship produced more walkovers than a Perth-Cairns walkathon.

The few court clashes, however, produced all the usual fireworks, tenseness and excitement and the temporary absences in no way detracted from the winner's right to the title.

Bill Hannan won on a forfeit from Ron Rogers through injury and Bob Lipman advanced to the second round because of Ken Glass's lengthy absence overseas.

Ray Hopkins, fresh from a 21-19, 22-20 victory against an always-dangerous opponent, Malcolm Fuller, was forced to concede to Bob Lipman following an injury to his leg in the State Singles.

Bill Hannan won his way into a semi-final clash, against Bob Lipman because of Bill Blakemore's desire to investigate the charms of the Bali countryside or coastline.

Bob Lipman won this marathon 21-18, 17-21, 21-18.

Neil won his way into the quarters the hard way by defeating Bob Callaghan and Charles Robinson. Semi-final opponent Tony Baine was taking in the overseas scene so Neil and Bob Lipman met in the final.

Neil, at 21 all, blasted his way to a 23-21 lead to take the set, match and title.

C Grade Championship

1982 MUST be the year of Doug Salier. The 1981 C Grade Final was like a meeting of two old friends — it went to David Castle.

Doug Salier and David Castle were at it again either meeting in an encounter on the handball court or on the receiving end at a handball presentation night. They are great competitors.

Plate to Vella

Bondi star handballer Noel Vella took his total of Tattersall's Plate wins to three with a close win against Clovelly's Gary Stubbs.

N. C. SMITH, Secretary

Epicureans at the Opera House ... PETER ASHBY

Epicureans of Tattersall's Christmas charge was led by Chief Epicurean Neville Amy who saw a dramatically-sated group, enjoying a superb supper and carousing champagne in the glorious northern foyer of the Opera House.

This happy gathering, at the conclusion of the performance, were ecstatic with the excellence of the production, the supper and the surroundings.

Cyrano De Bergerac! What a show! John Bell played the title role superbly, as was to be expected.

Robin Nevin as Roxane was stunning and from the edge of my seat had me buckling on sword and armour to defend myself, I mean her, from all those nasty Spaniards.

Two lengthy interval breaks allowed the process of re-charging to continue. Each break allowed me to check the scenery. The harbour was still there!

The supper of chicken legs, bacon rolls and fresh king prawns and nibbles was welcome and enjoyed by the Epicureans.

Maureen Montezza, a lovely little lady from Lima classed the evening a great success and Valerie and Babe Gleeson agreed.

New Epicureans Delmar and Neville Taylor enjoyed the play and the supper and have become instant Epicureans.

Yeah! I know! You're welcome to the nudge. I did forget to mention the famous Opera House orange juice. I'll endeavour to do it again.
